custom wound humbucker

Instrument:

0; for neck position on my custom telecaster, i was using voodoo pickups which is a fantastic bridge pickup 50`s s tele. and i wanted a new voice for neck sound. spoke to alan about how some H/B`s go mushy on a tele as you ha be carefull to get right sound on bridge etc and he was fantastic. really gave me the sound i was after.

Sound Quality:

output level was less than a standard H/B due to my request and to balance up with tele bridge. i use all sorts of an fenders, marshalls etc etc works great with everything. i play mainly country, blues and light rock stuff where the ton very important to me, and i have changed pickups so often in the past trying all the big makes , but alan at catswhi is right up there with the best !

Overall Rating:

if it was damaged in any way , i am sure i could go back to alan and get something equally as good in half the time
